

Press Release

Kremlin Rexson and Sames launch their new logos

October 2010

Kremlin Rexson and Sames are proud to announce the launch of their new logos, strengthening their identities.

The new logo shows our commitment to grow both globally and internationally highlighting and elevating the two product brand names.

They illustrate the Kremlin Rexson and Sames spirit of dynamism and commitment to innovation enabling us to offer customers complete solutions, from a pump to a complete application system.

Kremlin Rexson and Sames are Experts in Finishing and Dispensing Solutions. They are present in most markets on a worldwide basis (automotive, aerospace, rolling equipment, plastic, wood...).

This new logo will replace all existing designs and will shortly be used on all our documents.

The new website of Kremlin Rexson and Sames clearly highlights this new positioning with clarity and dynamism.
